The Orchestra of Syrian Musicians & Guests ankündigen können, welches am 09.12.2016 bei Transgressive Records erscheinen wird. Die Aufnahmen hierzu entstanden im Juni, als das Orchestra of Syrian Musicians, bestehend aus derzeitigen und ehemaligen Mitgliedern des Syrian National Orchestra for Arabic Music, das erste Mal seit Beginn des Konfliktes in Syrien zusammen kamen. Unterstützt wurde das Orchester von Künstlern aus Großbritannien, Syrien, Algerien, Libanon, Mali, Mauretanien, Senegal, Türkei, Tunesien und den Vereinigten Staaten, unter anderem Bashy, Bassekou Kouyaté, Bu Kalthoum, Damon Albarn, Eslam Jawaad, Faia Younan, Julia Holter, Malikah, Mounir Troudi, Noura Mint Seymali, Paul Weller, Rachid Taha und Seckou Keita. Enthalten sind Songs, live aufgenommen in der Southbank Royal Festival Hall – die durch den Evening Standard hoch gelobt wurde und als „epische Lobrede an ihr verlorenes Heimatland“ bezeichnet wurde – sowie Aufnahmen von ihrem Opening Slot auf der Glastonbury Pyramid Stage, dem Holland Festival in Amsterdam, dem Istanbul Jazz Festival und dem Roskilde Festival in Dänemark. Alle Einnahmen dieses Albums gehen an die 50 Mitglieder des Orchestra of Syrian Musicians.	180g LP	1	Transgressive Records	Alternative	TRANS263X	885150343630	D+AT+CH

Sony	Hendrix, Jimi	Live at George's Club	Live At George's Club 20 versammelt Amateur-Live-Mitschnitte von Jimi Hendrix' Performances, die der unsterbliche Gitarren-Held mit Curtis Knight im Dezember 1965 und im Januar 1966 abliefern. Nur wenige Monate nach Entstehung dieser Aufnahmen wurde Jimi vom Animals-Bassisten Chas Chandler im Greenwich Village entdeckt. Anhand der ungeschliffenen Blues- und Soul-Nummern lässt sich nacherleben, welcher Sound Chandler entgegenschlug, als er Hendrix im Café Wha? zum ersten Mal zu Gesicht bekam. Zwar handelt es sich bei den Songs, die auf Live At George's Club 20 zu hören sind (Cover-Versionen von Muddy Waters, Jimmy Reed, Ray Charles u.a.), um frühe Aufnahmen, aber die Fans werden den Gesang und das Gitarrenspiel ihres Idols sofort wiedererkennen. Die Tracks wurden in den USA nie offiziell veröffentlicht. Nun erscheinen die Original-Aufnahmen als Doppel-LP auf Dagger Records, dem offiziellen, von Jimi gegründeten Bootleg-Label. Sie wurden von Eddie Kramer restauriert, der dabei ganz auf Overdubs oder technische Spielereien verzichtete, die bei früheren, nicht genehmigten Veröffentlichungen der Titel zum Einsatz kamen.	LP	1				88985410171

Sony	The Sweet	Fox on the Run	Ein Phänomen wie dieses gibt es nur sehr selten. Meistens bleibt ein Song, wenn er zum Hit wird in der Generation, die auch seine Erstveröffentlichung, den Aufstieg und schließlich auch den Fall aus den Hitlisten miterlebt hat und wird von diesen dann streng behütet im Herzen getragen, aber in der kleinen Ecke mit dem Schild „Nostalgie“ abgelegt, die keine andere Generation je betreten darf. Nur wenige Songs, klar, jeder kennt sie, einige von Künstlern wie den Rolling Stones, Beatles, Queen oder David Bowie widersetzen sich dieser Nostalgie und sind über Generationen hinweg beliebt. Wahrscheinlich sind es nur so wenige, weil es einfach uncool ist, dieselbe Musik zu mögen, die schon die Eltern geliebt haben. „Fox On The Run“ ist allerdings einer dieser wenigen Diamanten. Es ist einfach egal ob der Song älter oder grad frisch rausgekommen ist. Ein großartiger Song in jedem Fall und alle Generationen, die den Song hören scheinen da gleich zu fühlen. Kein Wunder, der „der Fuchs“ sich grad wieder anschickt die Charts erneut zu erobern, wo er von Hollywood wiederentdeckt wurde. Der 1975er Super-Hit der Band Sweet wurde jüngst im Trailer zum 2017 kommenden Kino-Hit „Guardians Of The Galaxy 2“ integriert und millionenfach geklickt. Unzählige Action-Fantasy-Fans die bisher nie von einer Band namens Sweet gehört haben, durchsuchen plötzlich das Internet nach dem irren Sound aus dem Trailer. Jungs & Mädchen, darf ich vorstellen: „Fox On The Run“ in voller Lautstärke. Ihr werdet es lieben!	12"	1				889854235512

Soulfood	999	LIVE & LOUD (LIM. 180 GR. YELLOW VINYL)	999 kicked off in 1977 with I'm Alive and Nasty, Nasty, two notoriously riotous singles that would establish them alongside a handful of others in the shadow of the Pistols, Clash and The Damned. Nick Cash and Guy Days had unknowingly already made it into the history books, but there was much more to come in Homicide, Me and My Desire, Emergency and Biggest Prize In Sport. The live recordings within are assured reminders of a vitally important British punk band in their early prime with explosive versions of tracks from their first three albums from 1978-1979. Singles such as Feelin' Alright With The Crew and Hollywood clash perfectly with selected album tracks that collectively recall a halcyon period for British youth culture and its soundtrack. Soulfood	CHELSEA	LIVE AT THE BIER KELLER (LIM. 180 GR. GREEN VINYL)	Chelsea were an integral part of the punk fabric in London in 1976/77. With Tony James, John Towe and Billy idol leaving to form Generation X, charismatic skipper Gene October eventually put together the classic line-up that would produce punk anthems such as Right To Work, Urban Kids and Evacuate. Missing out on the major label backing of their more famous counterparts, Chelsea continued to bring an explosive live set to iconic venues such as Blackpool's notorious Bier Keller where their undiminished, raw power was dished out with little regard for anyone standing in the way. Interference proudly presents a prime chunk of British punk with the complete live performance from London's original punk stalwarts Chelsea, live from the Bier Keller in Blackpool on 8th December 1983. Professionally re-mastered original sound recording with expansive liners, interviews and rare archival photos.	LP	1	RED RIVER EXPORTS LTD	Rock		5296127003221
Soulfood	SLAUGHTER & THE DOGS	CRANKED UP REALLY HIGH (LIM. 180 GR. BLUE VINYL)	Slaughter & the Dogs were one of the first punk rock bands on the English scene in 1976, hailing from the notoriously tough Manchester suburb of Wythenshawe (once the skinhead capital of the North). Although never fully embraced by the punk fashionistas down in London, The Dogs embodied the British sound more than anyone knew it. Hauled around London by Malcolm McLaren, they personified the true urban instincts of rock 'n' roll with a homage to Mick Ronson, The Sweet, New York Dolls and Lou Reed in venues such as The Roxy, Nashville and The Vortex. Interference proudly presents the cutting edge of British punk with what is arguably, the first ever punk rock recordings made in England in 1976. Coupled with outtakes, demos, live tracks and their rare 1977 debut.	LP	1	RED RIVER EXPORTS LTD	Rock		5296127003122
Soulfood	U.K. SUBS	LIVE 'N' LOUD 89 (LIM. 180 GR. RED VINYL)	While U.K. SUBS were perhaps regarded by some to be in the shadow of The Clash, The Damned and other global brands, there was never any doubting their onstage power and the formidable presence of Harper in full flight. They remain one of Britain's best-loved punk bands among ordinary fans and have long outlasted most of their punk peers. In 2010, they won 6Music's audience-voted "punk rock FA Cup", comfortably seeing off the Sex Pistols, the Clash, the Buzzcocks, the Ramones and the Damned. Interference proudly presents the U.K. SUBS live, loud and in your face from Paris. Fully re-mastered original sound recordings with expansive liners, rare interviews and photos. Soulfood	CREATION,THE	POWER SURGE (PURPLE VINYL)	Alan McGee was such a big fan of The Creation that he named his record label after the band, and named his own band after one of their songs – Biff Bang Pow. The Creation was formed in 1966 from beat combo The Mark Four, and was quickly signed to a production deal with Shel Talmy, The Who's producer. The first release was the urgent "Making Time", which featured guitarist Eddie Phillips playing his guitar with a violin bow, two years before Jimmy Page started doing so. Whilst very popular in Germany, UK success largely eluded the band, and after a number of non-charting singles and line-up changes, the band broke up in 1968 without ever having released an album. In 1995, following a reunion concert at Harlesden's Mean Fiddler, Alan McGee and Joe Foster managed to persuade the original line-up of Eddie Phillips, lead singer Kenny Pickett, bassist Bob Garner and drummer Jack Jones to get into a studio and record a new album, for release on Creation Records! The results were issued in 1996, with a very limited release on vinyl. Sadly the reunion was cut short by Kenny Pickett's death from a heart attack in 1997. This limited edition reissue is pressed on purple vinyl, and features the original inner sleeve.	LP	1	DEMON MUSIC GROUP	Rock		5014797895706

It's the voice of somebody incredibly high, probably on the edge of death. They always sound like that. Johnny Thunders sounds like that. Anybody who heard that record would have said, 'Well that's that. We'll never hear from her again'." Issued on vinyl for the first time since 1985, our Record Store Day 2017 edition is pressed on silver coloured vinyl.	LP	1	DEMON MUSIC GROUP	Rock		5014797895652

Soulfood	BOLAN,MARC & T.REX	LIVE 1977 - 40 ANNIV. EDITON (GTF. GREEN 2VINYL)	A live Marc Bolan and T.Rex album was never released during Marc's lifetime. He claimed that he felt it unfair to expect fans to buy the same material more than once, and a multitude of contractual problems also kept his hands tied. This has often been due to the quality of the source tapes – a problem that has been largely unavoidable. For this first release on vinyl the sound has been cleaned up as far as is possible without altering what was recorded. The 1977 'Dandy In The Underworld' tour, which featured The Damned as the support, was Marc Bolan's most successful since 1972, receiving widespread acclaim from previously hostile critics, and earning Bolan a whole new credibility amongst the burgeoning punk audience. It is from this final tour that these recordings are taken. On 18th March 1977, Marc Bolan and the latest incarnation of T.Rex brought their successful Spring tour to the Rainbow Theatre in north London. As the band crashed out the opening bars to Jeepster, few in the packed auditorium could have known that Bolan's wheel had come full circle. As a boy in the 1950s he had visited this same building – used then as a cinema, the Finsbury Park Astoria – in the company of his older brother Harry Feld to see Jailhouse Rock. Despite extensive research over many years, a tape of the final three songs from The Rainbow has remained elusive. In order to present as complete a document of the final T.Rex tour as is possible, we have used recordings of the three missing Rainbow songs from the last date of the "Dandy In The Underworld" tour, Portsmouth Locarno on 20th March 1977. Soulfood	VARIOUS ARTISTS	THE MAGIC CUBE (LIM. LILAC 10 INCH VINYL)	One of the earliest psychedelic compilations and probably the strangest is The Magic Cube, which appeared inexplicably in 1982 in hip record emporiums around the world. A limited edition 9" flexi disc housed in a card envelope. When it was opened it unleashed a pop up psychedelic cardboard cube emerged to mystify and confuse. Purportedly the product of the same deranged collector mind who gave the world the first Acid Dreams compilation, Magic Cube certainly contained some killer US 60s garage psych punk, not least the stupendously rare Children of the Mushroom's You Can't Erase a Mirror and The Bedlam Four's crazed 'Hydrogen Atom' as well as The Front Page News fuzz fest 'Thoughts' and six other US '60s acid punk psych diadems. Now reissued in the original but improved packaging and pressed on 10" soft lilac vinyl the Magic Cube awaits once again to pop up and plunge into your fragile eggshell mind. Taste the cube this coming record store day.... "By 1984, I was awash with these compilations and had racked up eighty-five of the suckers before I screamed 'Enuff! The weirdest was definitely the 10" flexi called THE MAGIC CUBE, whose free-standing 3D cardboard sugar cube I stupidly constructed one stoned afternoon in '85." Soulfood	VARIOUS ARTISTS	70S ROCK - CLASSIC 45S	Rock with a capital 'R' really ruled the charts before the advent of Punk and New Wave. Guitar anthems and riff and a big sound, big hair, leather and denim. And the Rock Hits of the 1970s don't come much bigger than this. The ten specially selected double AA side 7" singles in this box pull together twenty of the biggest and most icon tracks of the golden era of ROCK. Forty years later it is inevitably impossible to find mint copies of these great songs on vinyl. Includes Boston, Blue Oyster Cult, Heart, Cheap Track and Lou Reed. Housed in hard slipcase, the ten 7" singles are 'dinked' as juke-box singles and the box includes a 'spider' centre for play.	SINGLE VINYL	10	DEMON MUSIC GROUP	Rock		5014797894938
Soulfood	VARIOUS ARTISTS	COUNTRY - CLASSIC 45S	Country music is a bigger worldwide phenomenon now than ever before, but the true superstars of Country Music made their own huge impression outside of the USA through the late 1960 to the 1980s. Superstar artists don't get much bigger than this, and these in particular are quite rightly commonly referred to as 'legends' – Johnny Cash, Dolly Parton, Tammy Wynette, George Jones, Willie Nelson... The ten specially selected double AA side 7" singles in this box present some of the best known classic hits by these ten artists. Between 57 and 35 years later it is inevitably impossible to find mint copies of these great songs on vinyl. Housed in hard slipcase, the ten 7" singles are 'dinked' as juke-box singles and the box includes a 'spider' centre for play.	SINGLE VINYL	10	DEMON MUSIC GROUP	Country		5014797894822

Soulfood	TURTLES,THE	THE ALBUMS COLLECTION (6LP BOX-SET)	The Turtles enjoyed eighteen US hit singles between 1965 and 1970, three of which ("Happy Together", "She'd Rather Be With Me" and "Elenore") were also huge hits in the UK. Demon Records is proud to present the band's six albums in their original sleeves (including two gatefolds), in a rigid slipcase. With sources newly re-mastered by Bill Inglot in LA, this is the first time these classic albums have been issued on vinyl since 1983! As well as the above three songs, the early hits include "It Ain't Me Babe", "Let Me Be", "You Baby", "Can I Get To Know You Better?", "You Know What I Mean", "She's My Girl", "Sound Asleep" and "The Story Of Rock And Roll". Produced by the Monkees' producer Chip Douglas, 'The Battle Of The Bands' (1968) features "Elenore" and saw the band assume a different musical persona for each track (or band, to use the American term). The gatefold sleeve, issued for the first time in the UK, features photos of the different bands. The album also features Turtles' hit cover of the Roger McGuinn/Gene Clark song "You Showed Me", sampled by U2 and De La Soul, and sampled and covered by the Lightning Seeds in 1997. "I'm Chief Kamanawanalea (We're The Royal Macadamia Nuts)" has been sampled over sixty times. 'Turtle Soup' (1969) was produced by Ray Davies, the only production job outside The Kinks and solo work that he ever undertook. Following the dissolution of the band, Mark Volman and Howard Kaylan re-named themselves Flo & Eddie, and joined Frank Zappa's Mothers Of Invention for five albums, as well as recording five Flo & Eddie albums. They also found time to contribute the distinctive falsetto background vocals to the T. Rex albums "Electric Warrior" and "The Slider".	LP	6	DEMON MUSIC GROUP	Rock		5014797895645

Broken Silence	MORRICONE, ENNIO	Blubeard / Barbablu (Original Soundtrack)	Der Original-Soundtrack aus dem Kult-Klassiker „Barbablu“ von 1972 mit RICHARD BURTON. Der Film von EDWARD DMYTRYK und LUCIANO SACRIPANTI basiert auf dem traditionellen Märchen „Blue Beard“ und wurde in Weimar gedreht. BURTON spielt den Barbablu, welcher der Nazi-Baron Vo Sepper ist. Die weibliche Besetzung besteht aus VIRNA LISI, RACQUEL WELCH (Miss Universe) und KARIN SCHUBERT (zukünftiger Pornostar!). MORRICONE's Soundtrack erfasst mit seinen unheimlichen Orgeln, eindringlichen Streichern und einem unverkennbaren 60's Vibe in perfekter Weise die dramatischen und unbeständigen Stimmungen dieses erotischen Psycho-Thrillers. Broken Silence	OLLI SCHULZ & DER HUND MARIE	Ausflug Mit Razzia	Clear-Vinyl-Nachpressung der lange ausverkauften und gesuchten 4-Song-7"-EP von OLLI SCHULZ & DER HUND MARIE mit vier Coverversionen der Hamburger Punklegende RAZZIA (2008) auf AUDIOLITH. Lange bevor OLLI SCHULZ als sympathischer und vor allem unkonventioneller TV-Entertainer einem Massenpublikum bekannt wurde, ist er schon als Musiker aktiv, das erste seiner bislang sechs Studioalben erschien bereits 2003, in der Bandbesetzung OLLI SCHULZ & DER HUND MARIE mit den TOMTE-Musikern MAX SCHRÖDER (Schlagzeug) und DENNIS BECKER (Bass) gehörte er zum Künstlerstamm von GRAND HOTEL VAN CLEEF, bevor seine weiteren Soloalben bei EMI, COLUMBIA und TROCADERO erschienen. Zwischen Singer-Songwriter und Indie Rock wusste SCHULZ Fans und Kritiker gleichermaßen zu begeistern, insbesondere sein großes Talent als charmanter Alleinunterhalter und der oftmals durchscheinende Bezug zu seinen Punkrock-Wurzeln wurden zum Markenzeichen. Die original im März 2008 erschienene EP „Ausflug Mit Razzia“ ist eine zärtliche Hommage an eine der besten und eigenwilligsten deutschen Punkbands überhaupt, OS & DHM präsentieren die Songs „Kaiserwetter“, „Sentimentaler Zusammenbruch“, „Als Haus Wärs Du 'Ne Hütte“ und „Nacht Im Ghetto“ im lakonisch-akustischen Indie / Folk / Country-Gewand. Erstaunlich, wie die düstere Grundstimmung der RAZZIA-Klassiker dabei gekonnt weiterentwickelt wird. Produziert von NIKOLAI POTTHOFF (MUFF POTTER, TOMTE). 7"-Single (Clear Vinyl) im farbigen Kartoncover, limitiert auf 400 Exemplare weltweit. Razzia waren eine Punkband aus Hamburg. Irgendwann haben wir festgestellt, dass wir unabhängig voneinander mit ihren Platten aufgewachsen sind. Ihre Texte und ihre Musik haben sich etwas Geheimnisvolles bewahrt und stehen bis heute ziemlich alleine in einer seltsamen Ecke der Musikgeschichte. Das hier sind unsere Interpretationen von vier Liedern dieser besonderen Band. Gute Unterhaltung. OLLI SCHULZ und MAX SCHRÖDER	7"	1	Audiolith	Indie/Singer-Songwriter	7" 04813		D+AT+CH

Broken Silence	FRANKLIN, ADAM	Iron Horse/Thursday's Child	ADAM FRANKLIN (SWERVEDRIVER) covert DAVID BOWIE und LEMMY KILMISTER / MOTÖRHEAD. Die streng limitierte Doppel-A-Seiten-Single (500 Exemplare weltweit) erscheint als transparent-blaufarbige Edition mit grünen Einsprengseln. Mit seiner 1989 in Oxford gegründeten Band SWERVEDRIVER avancierte Sänger und Gitarrist ADAM FRANKLIN zu einer der angesagtesten Shoegaze / Alternative-Rock-Formationen seiner britischen Heimat. So gelang der bis heute (mit einer Unterbrechung zwischen 1998 und 2008) aktiven Band bereits mit ihrem Albumdebüt "Raise" (1991) ein glänzender Chart-Entry, dem bis dato neben - zahlreichen Singleveröffentlichungen - noch vier weitere Alben nachfolgen sollten. Jetzt wartet der Band-Mastermind zum diesjährigen RSD mit einer Hommage an die beiden letztjährig kurz hintereinander verstorbenen Musiklegenden DAVID BOWIE und LEMMY KILMISTER auf. So findet sich hierauf neben dem MOTÖRHEAD-Klassiker "Iron Horse/Born To Lose" (von deren 77er Albumdebüt) zudem mit "Thursday's Child"(1999) ein relativ später BOWIE-Hit, die beide eine kongeniale Neuinterpretation von ADAM FRANKLIN erhalten.	7"	1	CLUB AC30	Indie	7" 18442		D+AT+CH

Broken Silence	DUBKASM	Brixton Rec	Rare Aufnahmen aus den neunziger Jahren von den britischen Dub- / Reggae-Pionieren DUBKASM feat. ABA SHANTI, TENA STELIN, LIDI XYLON und RAS ADDIS. „Brixton Rec“ erscheint als exklusiver RSD-Rerelease im streng limitierten, grünfarbigen 8-Track-Vinyl-Format (500 Exemplare weltweit) auf BRISTOL ARCHIVE. Internationale Bekanntheit erlangte das britische Dub- / Reggae-Duo DUBKASM mit seinen Produktionen auf dem künstlereigenen Label SUFFERAH'S CHOICE, das die beiden Masterminds DIGISTEP und DJ STRYDER seit 2003 höchst erfolgreich betreiben. Dass die aus Bristol stammenden Soundspezialisten bereits in den frühen neunziger Jahren zu den kreativsten Protagonisten der UK-Szene zählten, belegt die nun auf BRISTOL ARCHIVE erscheinende Compilation mit bislang unveröffentlichten Frühwerken des Duos, die seit ihrer Einspielung lediglich im Dubplate-Format existierten. Seinerzeit in den „Bristol-Rec“-Studios als exklusive Riddims für das Soundsystem von DJ und Szenegröße ABA SHANTI produziert zeigen diese Aufnahmen, wie zeitlos und visionär ihre soundtechnisch brillanten, hypnotisch groovenden Exkursionen zwischen (Roots-) Reggae und Dub bis heute geblieben sind. So gibt es neben vier Vocal-Tracks auf denen TENA STELIN („The Soul“, „Spiritual Warrior“), LIDI XYLON („The Order“) oder RAS ADDIS („Jah Bible“) das Mikro übernehmen, zudem jeweils eine analoge Dub-Version.	LP	1	Bristol Archive	Reggae	LP 18443		D+AT+CH
Broken Silence	MEYVANT, JUNIUS	Floating Harmonies	Exklusive RSD-Deluxe-Edition des großartigen Albumdebüts des isländischen Shootingstars JUNIUS MEYVANT mit einem fulminanten Mix aus Pop, Soul und Folk. „Floating Harmonies“ streng limitierte, goldfarbene Doppel-Vinyl-Edition inklusive zwei bislang unveröffentlichter Bonustracks (500 Exemplare weltweit) auf RECORD RECORDS. Bereits mit seiner großartigen im Sommer 2014 erschienenen Single „Color Decay“ gelang es dem aus dem isländischen Reykjavik stammenden Singer / Songwriter JUNIUS MEYVANT (aka UNNAR GISLI SIGURMUNDSSON), sich aus dem Stand an die Spitze der heimatischen Charts zu katapultieren. Damit nicht genug, erhielt der charismatische Musiker, der 2015 (s)eine gleichnamige EP nachfolgen ließ, bei den Iceland Music Awards (I.M.A.) eine Auszeichnung als bester Newcomer (und Sänger) sowie für den besten Song. Seitdem tourte der vielbeschäftigte Künstler fast ununterbrochen (und höchst erfolgreich) durch ganz Europa und arbeitete an seinem neuen Songmaterial. Mit seinem jetzt exklusiv für den RSD 2017 neu aufgelegten Albumdebüt gelang dem charismatischen Musiker nichts weniger als der große künstlerische Wurf, der sich zudem auf erfrischende Weise von den gängigen Produktionen seiner isländischen Heimat abhebt. Hier regieren keine von Naturgewalten, Dunkelheit, Melancholie und geheimnisvollen Wesen inspirierten Klänge. Vielmehr schöpfte der begnadete Komponist und Sänger dabei seine Inspiration aus dem reichhaltigen Fundus der amerikanischen Popmusik der 60er und 70er-Jahre. So überzeugt er auf „Floating Harmonies“ mit interpretatorischer Leidenschaft, raffiniert ausgefeilten Streicher- und Bläser Arrangements sowie einem untrüglichen Gespür für samtig anschmiegsame Harmonien zwischen Indie, Pop, Folk und Soul.	2LP	2	Record Records	Indie	LP 18444		D+AT+CH

Broken Silence	FOLEY, BLAZE	Sittin' By The Road	Das Album „Sittin' By The Road“ vom außergewöhnlichen Folk-Musiker BLAZE FOLEY wird am Record Store Day im streng limitierten 180gr-Vinyl erscheinen. Es beinhaltet die frühesten bekannten Aufnahmen von BLAZE, welche dieser in den späten 70ern auf einem Tonbandgerät aufgenommen hat und zeigt sein authentisches Talent als Songwriter. Die limitierte RSD-Edition beinhaltet ebenfalls detaillierte Liner Notes vom Regisseur des BLAZE FOLEY- Dokumentarfilms, KEVIN TRIPLETT. FOLEY wurde in Arkansas geboren und weit vor seiner Zeit, unter weitgehend unbekanntem Umständen erschossen. Als Obdachloser ist er durch die Straßen von Texas gereist und hat seine Musik in Nachtclubs und Bars gespielt. FOLEY, ein enger Freund von TOWNES VAN ZANDT, hat sich stets für die Schwachen stark gemacht, welches ihn letztendlich sein Leben gekostet hat. Nach einem Leben voller Ablehnung und verpasster Gelegenheiten erhält seine Musik nun endlich die Anerkennung, welche sie verdient hat. 2008 wurde seine Biographie „Living In The Woods In A Tree“ veröffentlicht, gefolgt von KEVIN TRIPLETT's Dokumentation „Duct Tape Messiah“. Das deutsche Independent Label ELITERECORDS wird nun endlich nach der schleppenden Bekanntgabe von FOLEYS unveröffentlichten Aufnahmen diese wunderschön gefertigte limitierte RSD-Edition herausgeben. Die 12 Songs, mit Hits wie „Clay Pigeons“ und „If I Could Only Fly“ - später gecovert von WILLIE NELSON und MERLE HAGGARD - sind ein perfektes Beispiel für FOLEY's Sound, welcher zwischen klassischem American Country und modernem Folk liegt, und seinen raffinierten politischen Texten, welche beide einen schlagkräftigen sowie emotionalen Ton besitzen. In der heutigen Zeit wird FOLEY nicht nur von führenden amerikanischen Folk-Musikern, wie NELSON, HAGGARD oder PRINE geschätzt, sondern auch von Independent-Musikern wie KINGS OF LEON. Sänger CALEB FOLLOWILL. Letzterer hat, in einem Interview mit den L.A. Times von 2010, behauptet, dass BLAZE FOLEY's Songs momentan seine wichtigste musikalische Inspiration sei.	180gr. Broken Silence	MADRIGAL	Madrigal	Legendäres Release einer fast vergessenen Band, welches in Insiderkreisen Höchstpreise erzielt. „Madrigal“ ist endlich wieder erhältlich via SUBLIMINAL SOUNDS. Das schwedische Label SUBLIMINAL SOUNDS ist ein Garant, wenn es um großartige aktuelle Psychedelic Bands (z.B. DUNGEN) geht, immer wieder präsentiert das Label aber auch alte, lange vergriffene Alben als Neuauflagen. So auch hier: MADRIGAL waren eine Legende im New Yorker Underground der frühen 70er Jahre. Das Duo nahm dieses Album wahrscheinlich in einer Art Heizungsraum in besten DIY-Manier auf. Ausgestattet mit nur einer Drummachine, einer E-Gitarre, einem Bass und verschiedenen Oszillatoren, erschaffen die zwei Künstler hier eine dichte, fast bedrohlich wirkende Atmosphäre. Die insgesamt acht Songs bewegen sich zwischen dröhnenden Psychedelica und düsterem Folk-Rock. MADRIGAL galten damals als Pioniere, und es werden immer wieder Parallelen zu SUICIDE (mit ALAN VEGA), den PATRON SAINTS oder auch in Ansätzen zu THE VELVET UNDERGROUND gezogen. Originale dieses Releases werden in Liebhaberkreisen in hohen vierstelligen Beträgen gehandelt. Diese Version enthält eine 12-seitige Bookletbeigabe mit vielen unveröffentlichten Bildern sowie einem tollen Interview mit der Band.	LP	1	Subliminal Sounds	Psychedelic Drone	LP 17587		D+AT+CH

Bassist MARCO NELSON (YOUNG DISCIPLES, PAUL WELLER) und Drummer CRISPIN TAYLOR (GALLIANO). Exklusiver, erstmaliger Rerelease des Kultalbums „Five In The Afternoon“ (2007) im streng limitierten, rotfarbigen Vinyl-Format (180-Gramm-Pressung / bedruckte Innentasche / 500 Exemplare weltweit) inklusive Download-Code für den bislang unveröffentlichten Titel „Twenty Pence Rd“. P.P. ARNOLD startete ihre Karriere Anfang der 60er Jahre als Background-Sängerin für IKE & TINA TURNER (IKETTES), arbeitete danach - begleitet u.a. von THE SMALL FACES und THE NICE - höchst erfolgreich als Solokünstlerin und war später auf Alben von NICK DRAKE, BARRY & ANDY GIBB, STEEL PULSE, PETER GABRIEL, THE KLF oder ROGER WATERS zu hören. In den achtziger Jahren zählte die Soul-Pop-Formation THE BLOW MONKEYS um Sänger, Songschreiber und Multiinstrumentalist BRUCE ROBERT HOWARD aka DR. ROBERT zu den angesagtesten Vertretern der britischen Musikszene. Seit seinem Bandausstieg widmet sich der frühere Mastermind vornehmlich seiner Solokarriere und arbeitete zudem mit hochkarätigen Kollegen wie PAUL WELLER, BETH ORTON TERRY CALLIER und P.P. ARNOLD zusammen, mit der er 2007 das Album „Five In The Afternoon“ einspielte. Begleitet wurden die Beiden dabei auf den Songs, die allesamt aus der kompositorischen Feder von DR. H'art Musik	EVANS, BILL	ANOTHER TIME	'Another Time: The Hilversum Concert' is a rare, never-before-issued recording of the legendary Bill Evans trio featuring Eddie Gomez on bass and Jack DeJohnette on drums captured live at the NRU (Netherlands Radio Union) Studios in Hilversum on June 22, 1968. This is only the third known recording in existence of this particular trio, who only performed together as a trio for a 6-month period in 1968, and was originally recorded and broadcast on the radio program Jazz in Actie by Dutch producer Joop de Roo. For the audiophile, this is possibly the best sounding live recording of Bill Evans found to date, captured with the then state of the art equipment of the NRU, and kept in pristine condition over the years. On the heels of 2016's landmark Evans discovery, Some Other Time: The Lost Session from the Black Forest, which was recorded a mere two days prior to this Hilversum date in 1968, Resonance has struck gold again with yet another unearthed gem from the iconic pianist Bill Evans. This deluxe LP is being officially released in conjunction with the Bill Evans estate and the musicians, and features rare photos, essays by Dutch jazz journalist Bert Vuijsje, producer Zev Feldman, plus interviews with Eddie Gomez, Jack DeJohnette and more!	LP	1	Resonance Records	JAZ	HLP 9031	0096802280412	D+AT+CH

H'art Musik	CHEAP TRICK	EPIC ARCHIVE 1	If a group's made up of two genuine rock star types, a Huntz Hall lookalike with a guitar fetish, and a guy who looks like an accountant, which one d'ya think would keep track of its recording archive? Don't worry, it's not a "trick" question—it is indeed the bespectacled Bun E. Carlos, the drummer for the original line-up of Cheap Trick, who has not only commented on every track (as faithfully transcribed by Ken Sharp) but provided much of the source material for this collection of rarities from the band's early days, 18 tracks (all making their vinyl debut) that reconfirm that the singular blend of classic rock, power pop, and glam—and inspired visual style—wielded by this outfit of Rockford, Illinois places them among the first rank of American rock 'n' roll bands. First up are three 1975 demos (of "Come On, Come On," "Southern Girls," and "Taxman, Mr. Thief") they cut at Ardent Studios in 1975 prior to signing a record deal, followed by early, 1976-1977 studio takes (produced by Jack Douglas) of "You're All Talk" and "I Want You to Want Me," an outtake, "Lookout," from their debut record, and an alternate (and nasty) version of "I Dig Go-Go Girls." On deck are an instrumental version of "Oh Boy" (the B-side to "I Want You to Want Me") and live versions of "You're All Talk" and "Goodnight" from a 1977 stand at the Whiskey, and a pair of alternate takes from the Heaven Tonight album, "Stiff Competition" and "Surrender." Also inside are five rarities from the band's famed Japanese tours, including the single version of "Ain't That a Shame," the promo-only release "Lookout," and three tracks from the out-of-print Budokan II album, "Stiff Competition," "How Are You," and "On Top of the World." The "no strings" version of "Dream Police" rounds out the collection in fine style. Compiled by producer Tim Smith, remastered by Vic Anesini at Battery Studios in New York, and featuring unseen photos by Robert Alford inside and outside the gatefold jacket, this special Record Store Day exclusive double-LP comes in bright yellow vinyl limited to 2200 copies! But wait...we have one more "trick" up our sleeve. A photo signed by all four founding Cheap Trick members Bun E. Indigo	COMMANDER CODY	Claiming New Territories-Live At The Aladin	COMMANDER CODY alias George Frayne IV ließ sich viel Zeit, bevor er über den großen Teich flog und zum ersten Mal auf einer deutschen Konzertbühne stand. Ganze zehn Jahre war der ehemalige Kunststudent schon dick im Geschäft (anfängs noch als COMMANDER CODY & HIS LOST PLANET AIRMEN), als er am 27. März 1980 mit der COMMANDER CODY BAND die Bühne des Bremer Musiktempels "Aladin" betrat, um mit seinen Fans dieses Debüt zu zelebrieren. Mit ihrer eigenwilligen Mixtur aus Country, Rock'n'Roll, Western Swing und Rockabilly brachten George Frayne sein langjähriger Begleiter Bill Kirchen und der Rest der famos eingespielten Crew schnell den Saal zum Kochen. So entstand eine prickelnde Live-Atmosphäre mit Partycharakter, die sich schnell auf den Hörer überträgt. Die Scheibe bringt einfach richtig Spaß und macht gute Laune. Dank an die Jungs von Radio Bremen, die vor fast genau 37 Jahren die Weitsicht hatten, diesen historischen Moment in toller Tonqualität für die Nachwelt festzuhalten. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 180-Gramm Vinyl! • exklusiv für den Record Store Day 2017 im April 2017 • strictly limited to 1.000 copies worldwide • allererstes Live-Konzert des Commanders in Deutschland im legendären "Aladin" in Bremen 1980 • https://soundcloud.com/m-i-g-music-germany/sets/commander-cody-claiming-new-territories-live-at-the-aladin-1980/s-pursF 	LP	1	MIG	Country-Rock	LP 141061	885513018717	AT
